A Specific for Hooping-Cough.
It is known by a few individuals in the counties of Jefferson, Shelby, and Oldham that I have a remedy that effectually cures Hooping-Cough. If there are remedies in America or Europe that cures it, it is not within my knowledge, except the one I use. Physicians tell the families they attend it can't be cured. I have no doubts they are candid in what they state. To get the medicine in use, and to get to sleep a deep-rooted prejudice, the faculty are invited to get the medicine, and save the little innocents whom they threaten, and tell them no more it cannot be cured. One dollar will pay for two bottles, which is a sufficient for one child. This medicine can be conveyed to any part of the United States by express for a mere trifle. To the Democratic Voters of the 1st Appellate Judicial District.
In virtue of the following resolution, passed by the Democratic Convention, held at Frankfort on the 8th of January, viz:

"Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the State Central Committee to attend to the organization of the party throughout the State; and to recommend to the District Committees, and to the party, such steps for that end as to them may seem expedient."

It is recommended by the Democratic State Central Committee, that the Democrats of the first Court of Appeals Judicial District hold a convention at the town of Irvine, in Estill county, on the fifth of July next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the next election.

June 2, 1860.
We are authorized to announce Joseph P. Force of Shelby, as a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, subject to the decision of the 18th July Convention.

Notice.—In order to let our hands enjoy the glorious Fourth we were compelled to get up this issue of our tri-weekly one day in advance of the usual time—of course it must be deficient in late news and lack the usual amount of editorial. We are too patriotic to work on the Fourth of July.

The Democracy had a rousing ratification meeting at Richmond, on Monday. A correspondent writes us that "James B. Clay made a splendid speech, and one that will be of service to the Breckinridge party. You can safely set down the Madison Democracy for Breckinridge and Lane. There are very few Douglas men in the county. All the staunch and standing up Democrats are for Breckinridge, and they confidently calculate on gaining from the Opposition enough to make up for those who may go off after Douglas. Col. Ed. W. Turner, the district elector, Mr. Terrill, the assistant elector, Col. Hawkins, Mr. Burton, Dr. Jennings, Maj. Squire Turner, Mr. Coghlan, of the Mountain Democrat, and in fact all the prominent Democrats with whom I have conversed are strong for Breckinridge, and are ready to take up his cause and give him an enthusiastic support."

SENTENCED TO BE HUNG.—The negro woman Frances, the property of Jacob Swigert, Esq., who was on trial this week in our Circuit Court, upon indictment for attempting to poison the family of Mr. Hiram Berry, of this place, was on Tuesday, found guilty by the jury and sentenced by the Court to be hung on the 7th of September next. The arguments of counsel on both sides were thorough and able. Messrs. Rodman and Lindsay for the defense, and the Commonwealth's Attorney, P. U. Major, assisted by Jno. M. Harlan for the prosecution. If this negro suffers the extreme penalty of the law she will be the only person who has been executed at this place within twenty-five years last past.

The glorious old county of Morgan is among the first to answer the summons of the Central Committee to meet the Democracy in council. See the proceedings of her meeting in another column.

A REAL CHARITY.—In some states the inhabitants are too poor to establish asylums for orphans, imbeciles, deaf mutes, &c., and in some parts even churches and schools, and hence they resort to the Lottery, around which they throw every possible guard. Yet there are persons who decline against the system, because "bogus" concerns exist. Upon the same principle, they would break up the auction business, because they often encounter a "Peter Funk." Great good flows from a legal Lottery; and every purchaser of a ticket, whilst he has a good chance to draw a prize, assists in a noble work of charity, or other public benefit. Such are the Lotteries of Messrs. Wood, Eddy & Co., of Wilmington, Delaware, and St. Louis, Missouri, who will send to any address, upon receipt of $2 50, $5, $10 or $20, by return mail, a part or whole ticket, which may draw the capital prize of $70,000.

METCALFE'S REPORTS.—The first volume of Metcalfe's Reports of decisions of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky is bound and ready for delivery, and may be had of the Reporter or at either of the book stores in Frankfort. Price $5 per volume. Persons wishing a volume sent by mail may remit the price and it will be forwarded postage paid.

Maj. S. Turner.

The same charges filed by Mr. P. P. Ballard against Maj. Turner in the Madison Circuit Court have recently been filed by the same individual in the Court of Appeals. It is not allowable for our laws that the same matter shall be put in issue in two Courts at the same time. It so happened, however, that Turner was in attendance upon the Court of Appeals when the charges against him were presented in that Court, and, instead of availing himself of the objection to them, above indicated, he waived all such objection, and insisted that such of the charges as were worthy of attention should be taken up and tried by the Appellate Court, and the Court has determined to investigate about one half of them—treating the others as unworthy of notice.

It will be recollected that the Court of Appeals has heretofore decided that Judge Goodloe could not preside on the trial of the charges. When that decision was filed in the Circuit Court Turner urged the election of a special Judge to try the cases, and this, we understand, was refused him.

Few or none believe that Turner has been guilty of malpractices in his profession, and most persons look upon the charge as instigated solely by the ranking malice of personal enemies.

To the Democratic Voters of Kentucky.

FRANKFORT, KY., June 26th, 1860.
WHEREAS, The undersigned, Democratic State Central Committee of Kentucky, have heretofore called a State Convention of the party to assemble at Frankfort, on the 18th of July next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Rankin R. Revell, Esq.; and recent events have occurred, which, in the opinion of the Committee, render it necessary that the Convention, when assembled, should take into consideration the general interests of the Democratic party:

Therefore, we hereby recommend that said Convention, in addition to the special subject already submitted to it, take into consideration and act upon such other matters as may be brought before it touching the general interests of the party, with a view to its organization and harmonious action, and to secure its triumph in the approaching State and national contests.

Democratic Meeting in Morgan.
At a meeting of the Democracy of Morgan county, held in the town of West Liberty, Ky., on the 25th day of June, 1860, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Convention to be held at Frankfort, to nominate a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, Dr. Raney Maxey was called to the chair, and J. G. Trimble was appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting was explained in a few pertinent remarks by J. W. Kendall.

On motion, the President appointed William S. Pierce, Isaac Ingram, and J. W. Kendall a committee on resolutions, who reported the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That we deeply regret the loss of our distinguished friend, Hon. Rankin R. Revell, and believe that in his death the State has lost a noble and efficient officer, and the Democratic party one of its ablest advocates.

Resolved, That we approve of the calling of a Convention, to be held at Frankfort, on the 18th day of July, 1860, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of R. R. Revell.

Resolved, That Joseph Carter, William Lykins, Wm. Pierce, A. L. Davidson, Eli Pieratt, Isaac Ingram, W. H. Vansant, K. H. Hunter, N. A. Brown, Wm. Williams, G. M. Hampton, Stephen Swanger, and J. Green Trimble, be appointed delegates to represent this county in said Convention, in accordance with the suggestions of the Democratic Central Committee.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the President and Secretary, and a copy of the same be forwarded to the Massville Express, Paris Flag, and Frankfort Yeoman, for publication.

On motion of A. L. Davidson, Morgan Co., having confidence in the ability, integrity, and qualifications of our fellow-citizen, J. T. Hazlegreen, recommended him to the Democracy of Kentucky for the office of Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and instruct our delegates to use all honorable means to secure his nomination for that position.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

RANEY MAXEY, President.
J. G. TRIMBLE, Secretary.

Breckinridge and Lane.

BY J. A. SPOONER.
Unfold the banner to the air,
And raise the deafening shout,
We heard Douglas in his hour,
And put him to the rout.
We'll lead the Union where she bleeds—
Let Constitution reign,
And follow truth where'er she leads,
With Breckinridge and Lane.
Bring out the cannons—let them blaze
From every hill and glen,
And let them thunder forth the praise
Of principle—not men.
Then join the throng—the nation's throne,
Who will not flinch in vain,
And swell the chorus of the song
For Breckinridge and Lane.

The Breckinridge Ball in Motion!

WOODFORD SPEAKS!!

Subjoined are the resolutions and proceedings of the Woodford meeting. The other counties of the State will rapidly follow the glorious example of the Democracy of Woodford, among whom is our gallant Lieutenant Governor, Thomas P. Porter.

At a large, anxious, and enthusiastic meeting of the Democrats of Woodford, in Versailles, on Monday, the 2d July, 1860, county court day, Col. Oscar Pepper have been appointed chairman, and H. P. McKee, Wm. Chapman, Henry Willson, on motion, the following gentlemen were constituted a committee to select delegates to represent the county of Woodford in the Convention to be held in Frankfort, on the 18th inst., viz: R. H. Davenport, H. Winn, Ben. Bailey, Fielding Davis, and William Hamilton, who, after consultation, reported the following as said delegates, viz: James Ricketts, L. T. Payne, W. A. Moore, Milton Barlow, Richard H. Davenport, Burkitt G. Yancy, F. S. Edwards, J. S. Whittington, H. Winn, Oscar Pepper, Sam'l Gray, H. A. Thomas P. Porter, H. A. Gibson, Warren Wiley, Ben. Bailey, Robert Whitton, Sanford Lyne, Dr. N. A. Davis, Warren S. Lillard, C. A. Harris, Henry M. Sellers, Alexander Hutchison, H. P. McKee, Wm. Chapman, Henry Willson, and all other Democrats in the county.

On motion, a committee of one from each precinct in the county was appointed, consisting of the following gentlemen, viz: Hon. Thomas P. Porter, Wm. A. Moore, H. Winn, Thomas W. Sellers, and Sanford Lyne, whose duty it was to draft resolutions expressive of the views and opinions of the Convention, relative to the nomination of the Hon. John C. Breckinridge and Gen. Joe Lane for the next Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States; who having withdrawn from the Convention, in a few minutes reported to the same the following resolutions, which were adopted by acclamation amid peals of applause, viz:

Whereas, A disruption having occurred in the late Democratic Convention at Charleston, by the refusal of a part of the delegates to adopt a platform of principles which recognized beyond controversy the rights of citizens in all sections of the country, by a persistent and disorganizing effort to force upon the Convention the nomination of a man whose political sentiments on the question more important than any other to the people of the Confederacy, are opposed to a large majority of the Democratic party, thereby compelling a withdrawal of the national and conservative portion of the delegates, resulting in the nomination of John C. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, for President, and Joseph Lane, of Oregon, for Vice President of the United States, be it therefore

Resolved, That we cordially endorse and fully approve the action of the convention by which John C. Breckinridge and Joseph Lane were nominated for President and Vice President.

Resolved, That as the fellow-citizens and former constituents of John C. Breckinridge, we recognize in his name all that is requisite to a statesman and noble as a man, and one whose love of the Union and political nationality should secure for him the support of all sections of the country.

Resolved, That we utterly repudiate, as subversive of the rights of the people of the South, under the constitution, and inimical to their interests, the doctrine enunciated by the Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, that "the people of a territory can by lawful means exclude slavery from their limits prior to the formation of a State Constitution."

Resolved, That the character of the American government, embodying, as it does, equally sovereign and independent political communities, embracing in their scope a great variety of soil, climate, and institutions, can only be maintained by the countenance and support of the federal arm when occasion arises, demands that the property of every citizen of the United States should be protected, whether from the North or South, and that any interference by Congress to destroy any right to property in the territories of the United States, is contrary to the genius of our government, and the spirit of the constitution.

Resolved, That neither a territorial legislature nor the people of a territory, prior to the formation of a State constitution, nor Congress, have any power, under the federal constitution, to restrict in a territory belonging to the United States, any rights of property recognized or not prohibited by the constitution of the United States.

Resolved, That we endorse, as just in its operations and as national in its character, the platform adopted by the majority of the committee at Charleston.

Resolved, That the Woodford Pennant, Kentucky State man, Frankfort Yeoman, and other Democratic papers in Kentucky, be requested to publish these proceedings.

Before the vote was taken on the above resolutions, the chairman of the committee, the Hon. Thomas P. Porter, made an elaborate and eloquent speech, referring, with great emphasis, to the various political topics now agitating the people, and upon the adoption of said resolutions. After renewed calls for our gifted townsman, Sam Gray, he made his appearance on the stand, and made a brief but eloquent speech in behalf of Kentucky's young statesman, John C. Breckinridge.

On motion, it was further

Resolved, That the above named delegates appointed to represent this county in the Convention to be held at Frankfort on the 18th inst., be instructed to vote for the nomination of the Hon. John C. Breckinridge and Gen. Joseph Lane, in removing all those members from the State electoral ticket, elected on the 2d of January last, who are not favorable to their election, and in selecting suitable persons to fill such vacancies as may be caused thereby. Whereupon, on motion, the Convention adjourned.

OSCAR PEPPER, Chairman.
JOS. M. BOWMAN, Secretary.

One hundred guns in honor of the nomination of Breckinridge and Lane, were fired at this place on Tuesday. Capt. Scully's Artillery never thundered more joyfully, to the Democracy of this vicinity—and he has proclaimed many a victory from the mouth of his little six-pounder—than when he announced the fact that our distinguished fellow-citizen is the chosen exponent and honored chief of the true National Democracy. Those who stood by Breckinridge when he first entered the political arena, when they discovered in him the elements of the success, and confidently looked forward to his rise in the career, can but feel a degree of pride and pleasure at this recognition of his worth and abilities by the country. They will give him a support which will surprise the country. They know his worth as a man, know his patriotism and know his capacity. And more than this, they admire his modesty and integrity. His principles are approved, and he will be sustained.—Lexington Statesman.

The Southern Democratic Banner, published at Franklin, Ky., closes an article in favor of Breckinridge and Lane, as follows:

Democrats of the South, rally to the support of your conservative men and measures; let "principles, not men," be your motto. Ward off every element of the least uncertainty with antagonism to sound, conservative Democracy. Stand firm and unshaken by your cherished memories, and our word for it, the victory will be won under the lead of Breckinridge and Lane.

"Bill, I'm fascinated with Miss Millin!"
"With her personal charms?"
"Yes, pure and noble charms."

Pennsylvania.

The Philadelphia Argus thus argues the subject:

BALTIMORE CONVENTION.—Never have we, in the whole course of our political experience, known any act on the part of a Democratic Convention so clearly unjust, and so perfectly indefensible, on any principle of right and equity, as the adoption of the majority report.

By the adoption of that report, in the first place, Mr. Hallett, a delegate from Massachusetts, duly and properly elected, in accordance with the usages of the Democratic party, was excluded. Mr. Hallett, in consequence of the illness of his wife, (since deceased), was unable to attend the Convention at Charleston, and yielded his place to Mr. Chaffee, his substitute. It is therefore ruled, contrary to every principle of justice, and in violation of common sense, that Mr. Hallett cannot resume his delegated power.

In the case of a delegate from Missouri, which is analogous with that of the Massachusetts case, the majority have adopted the same ruling. The key to this action on the part of the majority is, that in both these instances the true and original delegates were opposed to Mr. Douglas, while their substitutes were favorable to him.

In the contest cases from Georgia, Arkansas, and Alabama, the majority, in a "spirit of conciliation," and "after careful deliberation," give the one-half delegates from these respective States, who were elected by at least seven eighths of the Democracy, the privilege of casting one half of the vote of each State, and permit the Douglas bogus delegates, who do not represent one eighth of the Democracy of those States, to cast the other half.

The regular delegates from Louisiana are all excluded, and the Douglas delegates, under Ostend Soule, are admitted.

In the States of Mississippi, Texas, and Florida, where there is no contest, the majority graciously admit the delegates.

The friends of Judge Douglas have time and time again, avowed their policy on this policy. They have declared that with them it was "all or nothing." We have repeatedly warned them of the danger of such a policy, but they have been unmindful of our admonitions; and, as if determined to give a modern illustration of the truth of the proverb, that "when the gods mean to destroy they first make mad," they have, like John Bull, attempted to destroy the motto, "Douglas or nothing!" is now fulfilled, and they have dragged him down with them into the abyss of destruction.

New York.

The Day Book expresses its sympathy and support to the Southern cause openly and unequivocally. It says:

PRINCIPLES TRIUMPHANT AT BALTIMORE.—The great struggle of the last six months between principle and machinery has at last culminated in the defeat of the latter, the downfall of the latter. The main work, it is true, was done at Charleston, but as those who present principles are always magnanimous, and can afford to be magnanimous, another chance was given at Baltimore to adapt the old party machinery to the wants of the Democracy and the living issues of the day. It is the old story over again, of pure John Bullism, of the Douglas faction, and the result is what every earnest and intelligent Democrat has long anticipated—an utter smash up of the damaged crockery. There was only a single chance from the first to unite the old party in chimney with the advanced principles of Democracy. If, on assembling at Charleston, the Cincinnati Platform, which is mere black paper at this time, had been adopted without discussion, and Mr. Hunter, of Virginia, or some representative man from the South, nominated the old organization and the live principles of Democracy might have been harmonized perhaps, and a single front presented to the common foe. But it is as well, perhaps, that things have assumed their present shape. We shall now have a fair stand up fight with the Douglas faction, slavery-men, and who, that believes in God or truth in the people, will for a moment doubt the result?

Alabama.

The Mobile Tribune has the following:

THE RESULTS AT BALTIMORE.—The final catastrophe of the existing drama which has turned all eyes towards Baltimore for the last week, is now before the country. The disorganizing and reckless spirit of the Douglas faction has wrought its legitimate results. Their exclusion from the Convention of the genuine representatives of the Democracy of several Southern States, and the admission in their stead of spurious Douglas delegates, left no doubt of their desperate purpose to carry their objects with a high hand and utterly regardless of the sentiments and demands of the people. The representatives of the Southern Democracy, together with a large portion of the delegates of the Northern Democracy, including the distinguished President of the Convention, satisfied of this, and in thorough disgust at the unconscionable course of the faction, thereupon renounced all further association with them, and organizing themselves into a separate Convention, proceeded to the adoption of a platform and the nomination of candidates for the party. They adopted the platform known as the Majority Platform at Charleston—a sound Constitutional platform, which asserts the rights and equality of the South in the Union—and nominated as candidates for President and Vice President John C. Breckinridge and Joseph Lane—two men, whom the Southern Democracy, in their political opinions, and none more loyal to the South, can be found within the broad limits of the Union.

As to the prospects respectively of the Breckinridge and Douglas tickets for success in the approaching contest, there can be no comparison between them. It is hardly possible that Douglas can carry a single State in the Union. The voice of the true Democratic State has been given for his nomination—the bogus delegations from the South of course did not represent the voice of the Democracy in their States. On the other hand, Breckinridge and Lane were nominated by the united voice of every Democratic State. There cannot be a doubt that the vote of every Democratic State of the South, together with Oregon and California, will be given for them. They have Virginia, Kentucky, South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Oregon, and California, as certain capital to start with. It is very reasonably expected that Missouri, Tennessee, and Maryland will go with the great body of their sister States of the South. The masses of the Northern Democracy, seeing this array of States supporting Breckinridge and Lane, and that there is not the slightest hope for Douglas, will, it is reasonable to suppose, rally to the standard of the former; and thus a sufficient vote may be given for the ticket in the North, in conjunction with its certain votes enumerated, to insure its success. Thus there is a bright and cheering prospect of the triumph of Breckinridge and Lane, the chosen standard-bearers of the Southern Democracy, and the faithful and true champions of the constitutional rights of the South; while, on the other hand, there is not a single gleam of hope for Douglas and his Squatter Sovereignty faction.

In the last illness of George Colman, the doctor being late in appearance, was advised by his patients, saying that he had been called in to see a man who had fallen down a well. "Did he kick the bucket, doctor?" groaned poor George.
